SELCO COMMUNITY CREDIT UNION WELCOMES TRAVIS NEWMAN AS OPERATIONS CUSTOMER SERVICE MANAGER FOR ITS INSURANCE DIVISION

Newman brings a diverse professional background to the role

(SPRINGFIELD, Ore.) – SELCO Community Credit Union recently hired Travis Newman as an operations customer service manager for SELCO Insurance Services. He will be based in SELCO’s Gateway office in Springfield. In this role, Newman will oversee SELCO Insurance’s customer service and administration.

Before joining SELCO, Newman held a variety of positions in the insurance, financial, and real estate industries. Most recently, he spent two years as transaction coordinator/office manager/realtor for Tim Duncan Real Estate in Eugene. Before that, he worked at a pair of area credit unions, First Tech Federal Credit Union and Oregon Community Credit Union and held various roles at WHA Insurance in Eugene over a 4-year span.

“We are excited to welcome Travis to the SELCO Insurance team,” said Nick Bloxham, Vice President of SELCO Insurance Services. “We’re confident his friendly demeanor will ensure our customers are treated to a 5-star experience.”

Newman earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration with a minor in sports marketing from Western Oregon University in 2013. He has helped coach youth sports and participated in volunteer days at his former credit unions.

Away from work, Newman spends most of his free time with his wife and 18-month-old son. They enjoy hiking, boating, camping, snowmobiling, visiting wineries and breweries, and spending time with family and friends.
