The first Malbec event in the country, Malbec in the City was a huge success with 15 Oregon wineries pouring 40+ Oregon Malbec wines from Southern Oregon to Hood River with live music and tango performances in Portland. The participating wineries from across the state included Willamette Valley Vineyards, Abacela Winery, J Scott Cellars, Weisinger Family, Peter Williams, Ryan Rose Wine, Valcan Cellars, González Wine Company, Jorgensen Cellars, Sweet Cheeks Winery, Sarver Winery, Grit Cellars, Melrose Winery, Trella Vineyards, Famille Valot. Malbec in the City raised money to benefit Our Legacy Harvested to bring diversity to the wine industry on April 30th at Castaway in Portland.

Due to the phenomenal response of attendees and wineries, the 2024 date for Malbec in the City has been announced for Saturday, April 20th at Castaway celebrating International Malbec Day. Call for wineries interested in participating to email info@malbecinthecity.com

About Malbec in the City!:

Malbec in the City is the first Malbec event in the United States, bringing together Malbec producers with grapes grown in Oregon. The inaugural annual event was held on Sunday, April 30, 2023, at Castaway Portland and benefited Our Legacy Harvested, a nonprofit empowering the BIPOC community in the wine industry. The second annual Malbec in the City will be on Saturday, April 20, 2024 at Castaway Portland. For more information visit the Malbec in the City! About Our Legacy Harvested:

Our Legacy Harvested mission is to educate, advance and empower the BIPOC community at any career level so that tasting rooms, cellars and vineyards may be welcoming to, and may better represent, the diverse world of wine drinkers and enthusiasts. Founded in 2020 by Tiquette Bramlett, Our Legacy Harvested works with individuals to advance their knowledge and expertise in the wine community. Our Legacy Harvested values partnering with wineries to ensure tasting rooms, cellars, and vineyards better reflect the diverse world of wine they represent.
