

Local Health Club to Host the First Professional Racquetball Tournament in Eugene, Oregon

August 22, 2023 - Eugene, OR - The Downtown Athletic Club ("the DAC") will host the 2023 Tracktown Open, the first professional racquetball tournament to be held in Eugene, Oregon. The event is set to take place from August 31 to September 3, 2023, and will feature some of the world's top racquetball players.

The tournament will have up to three divisions, and spectators from Eugene and surrounding communities are invited to come and watch both professional and amateur athletes compete for top prize money in both singles and doubles categories.

"We're excited to open our doors to the racquetball community and local spectators to come enjoy the tournament," said Rob Bennett, owner of the Downtown Athletic Club. "As a long-standing establishment in Eugene, we're honored to have been selected to bring this tournament to the city for the first time. It's going to be an exciting weekend!"

Founded in 1985, the DAC is uniquely positioned for this event, offering five racquetball courts, a convenient location in downtown Eugene and ample event space in its 100,000-square-foot facility. In addition to its racquetball courts, the club features a wide range of amenities, including a regulation-sized basketball gym, squash court, expansive cardio area, multiple exercise studios, warm water fitness and lap pools, a fully-equipped weight room, and full-service locker rooms.

The 2023 Tracktown Open will be hosted at the DAC, located at 999 Willamette Street, Eugene, Oregon. Attendee parking is available across the breezeway in the Overpark Garage, as well as street parking and public transportation options.
