Lane Transit District

Park & Ride with LTD to Duck Football Games

EUGENE, Ore. ---(August 29, 2023)--- Duck football fans can use one of Lane Transit District's 22 free Park & Ride locations to take the bus to the Eugene or Springfield station where they can board EmX, exit at the Agate Station, and then take a short walk north across Franklin Boulevard and the Frohnmyer Footbridge to Autzen Stadium.

"Getting to the game is easy when you ride with LTD," said Pat Walsh, LTD's Chief Marketing Officer. "LTD's Park & Ride locations are free, making game day less expensive and less of a hassle than navigating after-game traffic congestion."

An LTD Day Pass for adults is $3.50 and $1.75 for youth. Kindergarten through 12th-grade students can use their free LTD Student Transit Pass for game day bus fare. Passengers 65 years of age or older who have an LTD Honored Rider Pass are also able to ride the LTD bus for free. Fare and pass pricing is available at LTD.org and at the Customer Service Center in Eugene Station.

On Duck football Saturdays, LTD buses operate on regular Saturday schedules. Complete bus schedules and a convenient trip planner are available at LTD.org.

On days with University of Oregon home football games, detours are in effect on Routes 12, 13, 28, 66, 67, 79X, and 96. Depending on game day traffic, other bus routes may be impacted. Please plan extra time for your transit trips on game days and expect delays due to increased traffic. View LTD Service Alerts online at LTD.org, or follow @LaneTransit on Twitter.

During the Duck football season, the University of Oregon has contracted with private bus carrier First Student to provide football fans with game day bus service to the stadium from various locations throughout the area. Questions about Duck football bus services can be directed to the UO Athletic Department.
