Lane Transit District

Vets and Their Family Members Ride Free to Stand Down

EUGENE, Ore. ---(Sept. 25, 2023)--- On Friday, Sept. 29, 2023, all United States Military Veterans and their families can ride any Lane Transit District bus for free when they tell the bus operator they are headed to Lane County Stand Down at the Lane County Fairgrounds.

Lane County Stand Down is an annual event for Veterans and their families that connects them to organizations that set up temporary shop at the Fairgrounds for the day. Participating organizations offer medical services, personal care services and items, meals and food, Veteran's benefits, clothes, housing information, and other services.

Military Veterans aged 65 and over are always eligible to ride LTD buses for free with an Honored Rider Pass. Anyone aged 65 years and older can enroll in the Honored Rider Pass program at the Customer Service Center in the Eugene Station. With valid ID, a customer service representative will offer the Honored Rider a tap card or a benefit code for the Umo Mobility smartphone app.

More information about Lane County Stand Down can be found at LaneCountyStandDown.org.

About Lane Transit District (LTD)

Lane Transit District (LTD) is a special district of the State of Oregon led by a seven-member volunteer board of directors appointed by Oregon's governor. LTD's budget is funded through a combination of fares, taxes paid by local employers and employees, and from state and federal sources. LTD lives its mission to connect our community by delivering more than 5 million annual passenger boardings from 30 fixed bus routes and two EmX Bus Rapid Transit lines. LTD's paratransit service, RideSource, provides more than 250,000 trips annually for people with disabilities and Medicaid recipients. More information about LTD is at www.LTD.org.
