Lane Transit District

New Mural Graces LTD's Eugene Station During Remodel

EUGENE, Ore. ---(February 27, 2024)--- Lane Transit District is in the midst of an improvement project at Eugene Station, the central hub of LTD's transit system. The $3.8 million investment will provide long-lasting improvements that will serve the community well into the future.

The construction created a large, blank temporary wall. As part of LTD's commitment to incorporating art into its infrastructure, a public art installation will be unveiled later this week.

Muralist Liza Burns was brought in to liven up the area with vitality and beauty. The mural is 8 feet high and 24 feet wide, with "a focus on transportation options in a fun and playful way," said Burns. The mural will remain in place throughout the remodel, estimated to be completed this summer.

Join Burns as she applies her finishing touches at Eugene Station, this Thursday, February 29, from 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. She'll be available for questions and members of the media are welcome to film her at work.

Recent work from Burns includes a mural in the lobby of the new Eugene Family YMCA, as well as the "Celebrate Oregon!" Oregon Cultural Trust license plate.

LTD reached out to three local muralists and asked them to submit a design for consideration. The winning artist was selected by a team of LTD employees.
