Eugene Chamber of Commerce Welcomes New Board Members Todd Salnas and Tim Inman

Eugene, Oregon - March 20, 2024 - The Eugene Area Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce the election of two distinguished professionals to its Board of Directors: Todd Salnas, CEO of Slocum Center for Orthopedics & Sports Medicine, and Tim Inman, Vice President of Government & Community Relations and University Secretary at the University of Oregon.

Todd Salnas brings a wealth of leadership experience and a commitment to community service to the Eugene Chamber Board. As CEO of Slocum Center for Orthopedics & Sports Medicine, Salnas has demonstrated exceptional dedication to enhancing healthcare services in the region. "I am honored to join the Eugene Chamber Board and work with the respected Eugene Chamber leadership team," Salnas said. "I look forward to working alongside fellow strategists and community members to continue to serve our dynamic community. Since 1939, Slocum has been a regional leader in health care and it's a privilege to further align Slocum's efforts to serve the region with the broader Eugene Chamber strategies."

Tim Inman's deep background in government affairs and leadership role at the University of Oregon positions him well to continue his public service as a member of the Eugene Chamber Board. Bringing a unique perspective and a strong understanding of governmental affairs and community engagement to his role at the university, Inman has played a pivotal role in fostering positive relationships between the university and the broader Eugene community. "It's an exciting time to be a part of the Chamber," Inman said. "I'm thrilled to be working with such a great team to continue to move our community forward."

"We are thrilled to welcome Todd Salnas and Tim Inman to the Eugene Chamber Board of Directors," said Brittany Quick-Warner, President, and CEO of the Eugene Chamber of Commerce. "Their diverse backgrounds, leadership skills, and dedication to our community make them invaluable additions to our board. We look forward to their contributions as we work together to support Eugene's economic vitality and quality of life."

The Eugene Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors plays a vital role in guiding the organization's strategic direction and advancing its mission to promote a thriving business environment in Eugene and the surrounding area.
